Instructions:

1. Score and fold the Basic Beige 4-1/4" x 11" card stock on the 11" side at 5-1/2".
2. Attach the Country Lace 5-1/2" x 4-1/4" DSP to the card front.
3. Attach the Country Wood 4-3/4" x 3" DSP to the card front toward the right side of the card centering top and bottom.
4. Attach the two Country Wood 3" x 1/2" DSP pieces to the Country Wood DSP (toward top and bottom) on card front using dimensionals as shown above. Then attach the Country Wood 3" x 1/4" DSP to the center of the Country Wood on card front using mini dimensionals. Attach a Flower Accent to the right of this piece to be the door knob.
5. Using liquid glue, attach the 4-1/2" x 1/4" DSP pieces at an angle, one between the top, popped up DSP and the middle DSP. Then the 2nd one between the middle and bottom popped up DSP. Next, trim the ends of the angled DSP pieces even with the DSP door.
6. Stamp the stool from the Country Flowers stamp set onto a Country Wood DSP scrap using the Early Espresso stamp pad. Cut out using the coordinating die from the Country Flowers Dies set. Attach to card front using a combination of liquid glue and dimensionals as shown above.
7. Using the Jet Black StazOn stamp pad, stamp the milk jug image from the Country Flowers stamp set onto the Flower Garden 2-1/2" x 2" Foil piece. Then using the coordinating die from the Country Flowers Dies set cut this piece out. Attach to the card front using a combination of liquid glue and dimensionals.
8. Cut out the Garden Green scrap using the circular leaf die from the Country Flowers Dies set. Attach over the milk jug on card front using a combo of liquid glue and dimensionals. Next, cut out the Basic White scrap using the circular flowers die from the same dies set. Attach over the leaves using liquid glue. Then attach a Party Dot to the center of each flower.
9. Stamp the Many Messages stamp onto the Basic White 5-1/2" x 4-1/4" card stock using the Early Espresso stamp pad. Let dry really well, then using the coordinating die, cut out. You will get many labels that you can choose from. Attach one of your choice to the card front as shown above.
10. Attach the Pool Party 5-1/4" x 4" card stock to inside of card.
11. Stamp verse of choice from The Right Words stamp set onto the Basic White 5-1/8" x 3-7/8" card stock using the Early Espresso stamp pad. Attach the Country Wood 3-7/8" x 5/8" DSP to bottom of this piece. Attach to inside of card and you are now done!
